

Access Email with Outlook Client - To set up the client, open Outlook program/app on your computer.

1. If it is the first time you have opened it, you will be prompted to enter your email address and password then the setup will automatically begin.
2. If the setup does not automatically start follow these instructions.

